Lucan Baconfest receives financial boost from Celebrate Ontario

Baconfest: Celebrate Ontario 2018's only motorcycle enthusiast festival recipient

April 17, 2018 | Lucan Baconfest Committee

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Lucan Baconfest just received a big boost financially to further develop its summer event. The Celebrate Ontario 2018 grant will assist with event enhancements, including both additional and higher profile performing artists and staging effects for the evening concert hosted by Hogtown; retention of a Food Network Celebrity to host the Baconfest; additional extreme motorcycle shows throughout the day; an expanded Hogland camping area and important infrastructure to support Baconfest's rapid growth.

"Being awarded this Celebrate Ontario grant is a testimony to what a great community Lucan is. The additional funding allows us to make many enhancements to the event, to welcome visitors to Lucan Baconfest and showcase our community," says Cathy Burghardt-Jesson, Mayor of Lucan Biddulph, about the public, private and provincial government partnership.

Baconfest, a town-wide community collaboration celebrating EVERYTHING BACON & BIKES , will take place in Lucan, Ontario on July 14th, 2018. Baconfest is an outdoor festival showcasing local and southern Ontario businesses, organizations, artisans and musicians which draw thousands of motorcycle and bacon enthusiasts. Baconfest has plenty to explore and experience, including a wide variety of delicious and unique bacon cuisine, Vendor Villages, KidsZone, live performances, beer gardens, a custom bike show and a shine, breakfast poker run, custom car show and Canada's only original Harley Pull event. Baconfest attracts over 25,000+ tourists of all ages annually from Ontario and the USA. Come for the bacon...stay for the shows. There is something for everyone.

Celebrate Ontario is an annual program that helps festivals and events enhance their programs, activities and services. This support helps grow tourism in the province by making it easier for event organizers to offer new and improved experiences that will attract more tourists and increase visit or spending.
